Happy Holidays!

Hello FHAL Members!

Time has flown and our busy art season is officially underway!

We're rolling right into the Juried Show, the All Members Show, and then the fan-favorite Artisan Tour.

Be sure to visit the website and click on the Art Show and Artisan Tour tabs for all the details. The All Members Show is the last show that's still open for entry, and we'll be activating it very soon—stay tuned!

At our January 5 Members Meeting, we're excited to welcome Sue Cherk, who will present on the Art of Quilling—a must-see!

(Sue is also our Treasurer)

And don't forget to save the date for the Juried Show Awards Presentation on January 22 at the Fountain Hills Community Center. Pat Reich and her committee have been hard at work adding some fresh flair to this year's show—you won't want to miss it!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Artist of the Year

Elaine Tarr

I am humbled by this honor, with all the very talented members of the Art League, to be awarded the "Artist of the Year" award. This piece entitled "Whimsical Spring in the Sonoran Desert" is the fulfillment a vision I have had for several years, to capture the beauty of the nature of our surrounding desert. I have been doing both quilting and machine embroidery for many years. Now I am joining these two skills together in creating small, quilted wallhangings.

You will find machine embroidered javelinas, quail and cacti, as well as snakes, trees and mountains incorporated in the landscape. There is even some hand embroidery included.

Each month the Fountain Hills Art League members are invited to show a recent project in our "Artist of the Month" event. All league members present at the meeting the vote on their favorite art piece. The monthly winners are brought to back to our December meeting where the members again vote on their favorite work.

This year, my piece was selected for the "Artist of the Year".
